

MIT Federal Credit Union names Rui F. Domingos as President and Chief Executive Officer

For Immediate Release

Cambridge, Massachusetts, March 6, 2020—The MIT Federal Credit Union (MIT FCU) Board of Directors are pleased to announce the appointment of Rui F. Domingos to the role of President and CEO.

Rui F. Domingos joins MITFCU with 29 years of experience in the Credit Union Industry and is passionate about the significance of credit unions in the community. Mr. Domingos, a member focused leader, has an outstanding history of creating highly engaged teams which has been proven by leading results oriented organizational change and by making an impact within his community. Most recently, Mr. Domingos served as Chief Executive Officer at Naveo Credit Union, a $143 million credit union headquartered in Somerville, MA. Additionally, he is a member of the Cooperative Credit Union Association Social Responsibility Committee and the Metro Boston Chapter.

“We are delighted to welcome Mr. Domingos to MIT FCU and are confident that he is the right person to build on MITFCU’s momentum.” said David Markuson, Chairman. “He is a leader with strong background of financial, operational and executive management experience who will ensure continued excellence of service to our membership as well as taking MIT FCU to the next level.”

"I am humbled and honored to join this fantastic organization and appreciate the Board of Directors’ confidence in me to lead MIT FCU.” said Mr. Domingos. “I look forward to working with the credit union's talented team to continue to deliver great value to our members. In addition, I am eager to engage with the MIT community and affiliated organizations to collaborate on initiatives that will improve the financial well-being of the credit union members."
